FREE
CEU
Training

Everyone Invited

AAGSL organized a very special training for you and your employees. You won't find this type of training anywhere in the Greater St. Louis area! The City of St. Louis requires all Technicians and Sales representatives to complete Level 1 training. You are required to stay current each and every year with the 12 hours of CEU's. Attend the classes and you will have .8 CEU's in one day!
